County Students Earn Dean's List Recognition At University

A total of 1,234 undergraduate students at Murray State University earned recognition on the Dean's List for high scholarship during the 1975 spring semester.

Among that number are 257 who achieved a perfect 4.00 academic standing. Others on the Dean's List had grade point standings between 3.30 and 4.00. Standings are figured on the basis of 4.00 for A, 3.00 for B, 2.00 for C and 1.00 for D grades.

Full-time undergraduate enrollment for the spring semester was 4,753.

Records from the university's data processing office show 43 students from Calloway County with perfect scholastic standings. They are: David Alexander, Karen Alexander, Jadonna Allen, Jeri Andrews, Katie Blalock, Diapa Boone, Fayte Brewer, Waldo Brines, Jerry Burkeen, Anthony Cassity, Deborah Cathey, Kevin Cooper, Sarah Cooper, Jill Craig.

Timothy Fannin, Georgiana Furgerson, Charles Gale, Patricia George, Kerry Gillihan, David Graham, Michael Hamilton, Janet Hart, Leah Hart, Pat Hopson, Leslie Humphreys, Suzanne Jones, Randy Linn, Cindy Lowe, Deborah Miller, Susan Nanny, Sylvia Payne, John Rayburn, Cynthia Readle, Holly Rudolph, Jennifer Spencer, William Steely, Johnny Stockdale.

Penelope Terhune, Rebecca Terhune, Peggy Visser, Christine Walker, Helen Dingman and Tonda West.

Air Becomes Illegal At Midnight Tonight

WASHINGTON (AP) — At midnight tonight the air in most of the United States becomes illegal. It will be cleaner than it used to be, but not so clean as Congress has ordered it to be.

Scattered Showers

Considerable cloudiness today, with widely scattered showers and thundershowers, and a high in the low and mid 70s. Clearing and cooler tonight, lows in the low and mid 50s. Partly cloudy and mild Sunday, highs in the low and mid 70s.

ministrator Russell E. Train reported Friday that only 89 of the nation's 247 Air Quality Control Regions appear to be in compliance with all of the five anti-pollution standards legally required by June 1, 1975.

The others appear likely to fall short, in varying degrees, of one or more of the standards for cleaning up airborne smoke and dust, sulfur dioxide, carbon monoxide, smog, and nitrogen dioxide. The passing of the deadline will not spark any sudden crackdown by EPA on polluters, Train said.

Unofficial Recanvass Reveals Stephens And Yeiser Winners

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Fayette County Judge Robert Stevens won the Democratic nomination for attorney general by more than 3,600 votes over former Kentucky public defender Anthony M. Wilhoit after an unofficial recanvass of the state by the Kentucky Election Service.

The recanvass Friday also showed Winchester agribusinessman Beverly G. Yeiser leading former natural resources commissioner Tom Harris by 101 votes in the agriculture commissioner's race.

The recanvass by the election service counted all but two of Kentucky's 3,303 precincts. The two precincts are in Jefferson County and have four registered Democrats, according to figures from the secretary of state's office.

The unofficial tally showed Stephens with 62,133 votes and Wilhoit with 58,445 in the attorney general's race with 99.9 per cent of the precincts counted.

In agriculture commissioner's race, Yeiser had 60,698 votes and Harris had 60,597.

The recanvass indicated a different winner in the 3rd District railroad commissioner's race: Robert Damron had appeared the victor, but the recanvass showed Jimmy (Gabe) Turner a 707-vote winner.

The tally—with 1,085 or 1,085 precincts counted—was 12,919 votes for Turner to 12,212 for Damron.

The Kentucky Election Service was formed in 1966 by The Associated Press and United Press International to tabulate the state's vote on election night for the two news services. The election service provides its returns to the news services, who then distribute them to the newspapers and broadcast stations they serve.

The election service gathers returns from Kentucky's 120 counties and tabulates them on a computer in Louisville.

Kit Kincade, manager of the election service and Kentucky bureau chief for The Associated Press, said the recanvass revealed errors at several different levels in the initial tabulations.

Enthusiasm Runs High In County Elementary Schools

By Nanci Peterson

Nearly seven months since moving day, students, teachers, and principals are more enthusiastic than ever about their new Calloway County elementary schools.

"We all have a strong pride in our facilities, and there has been no really destructive behavior in our buildings up to this time," said Bill Miller, Calloway County school superintendent.

Echoing his statement, the three principals, Bob Allen of East Elementary; Roy Cothran of Southwest Elementary; and Johnny Bohannon of North Elementary, say both students and teachers have done a magnificent job of adjusting to their surroundings.

The move has allowed the three schools to expand their programs, finally offering physical education for all students at least twice a week. In addition, basketball, baseball and track are regular extra-curricular activities, and the teams meet in regular competition at the county high school while their tracks are being constructed.

Even more important, at least in the eyes of Cothran, is the increased emphasis on reading courses. "Too many of our students are being held back simply because they can't read with comprehension. Ninety-nine per cent of the students could work math problems and study science with no trouble if they understood what they read," he said.

"In a period of three years, I predict there will be tremendous growth in our reading program, as the pupils learn to like reading, and all other programs will follow suit. We want to be above the state and national average for reading systems and ranking," said the principal of Southwest Elementary.

Another series of offerings available in the new schools for the upper grades, six through eight, is the exploratory courses. These courses, which include journalism, arts and crafts, speech, business, home economics, guitar and others, may be chosen by students depending on their interests.

"Our course choices have been very favorably received this year, and we plan to add a few selections next year, possibly junior typewriting and a foreign language," said Allen from East Elementary.

"Most of our landscaping has been done by the pupils, and I'm sure this has something to do with their pride in their surroundings and cooperation in keeping our buildings nice," he added.

In order to make such courses available the school day has been divided into seven periods where there were six, and the music, physical education and speech therapy classes give individual teachers a planning period each day, a luxury never affordable in the old system.

An advantage to planning time is the composition of a curriculum guide for all the schools. This "much needed" item will tell each teacher what the children in their grade is responsible for knowing in the next grade. Presently there is no written standard for each grade's progress.

Constructed from the same architectural plans, each school has the lower grades, one through five, housed in triangular and doorless rooms, part of what is called a four-unit "pod". Part of the open classroom concept, these pods are perhaps even more quiet than the old school buildings.

"Our teachers are a bit apprehensive when we moved in, but we've all adjusted well, and no one notices the lack of doors anymore," said Bohannon of North Elementary. He was principal at the Kirksey Elementary school before the recent consolidation, and has been in the system four years.

Agreeing that the goal of the elementary school is a successful high school graduate, the principals meet at least once a month. "There has been no animosity between pupils from different communities, and that's one thing we're proud of," said Cothran, who has spent 10 years in the system, and the past three years as principal at Hazel Elementary.

Also noticeable is the lack of ferocity between the schools. There's competitive spirit, but it's not as fierce as it was before," added Allen who was appointed following his principalship at New Concord. He joined the Calloway County school system in 1965.

Housing a fluctuating total of 1838 students, the schools have 79 full-time teachers and several mobile specialists which teach two or three periods per day in each school.

Built at an approximate cost of $2,482,000, the schools are model modern facilities, and are frequently visited by those interested in constructing similar structures in their school systems.

LOOK AT THAT!—Students at East Elementary study paper mache dolls made in a craft class at the school. Such programs are present in all the schools since the new buildings were occupied in October, and are a great success according to the three elementary principals.

FOR SUNDAY, JUNE 1, 1975
Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20)
A sense of responsibility and pluck will be needed now. Situations may not work out as expected. Don't panic; step cautiously, knowingly.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 to May 21)
This day should turn out satisfactorily if you are master of your emotions under all circumstances. Especially favored: travel and outdoor interests.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21)
Bow to the demands of the immediate present until you have time to really plan a new and more profitable course. Sharpen your fine mental gifts.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23)
Take unusual situations in a philosophical way and whatever surprises there are will show their advantageous side quickly. Only the pessimist sees the gloomy side.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23)
What is significant to you may not be to others, so be careful how you express your views and don't PRESS for results.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23)
Don't anticipate problems. Study, think, act in a careful manner. Mixed influences prevail, so be mindful. Avoid gossip and rumor-mongers.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23)
Day should prove stimulating in many ways, many areas. One of your more casual interests will now take on added importance.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 23)
Do not be deceived by high-sounding promises. Study persons and situations with your usual keen perception, then act as your best judgment dictates.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 to Dec. 21)
Keep emotions under control and do not make drastic or needless changes on the spur of the moment.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)
A day for listening! Something hinted at will be of more importance than what is actually said; may put your thoughts on an entirely new track.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)
A bit of daring could pay off now. Don't hesitate to try unique ideas, methods. You're thinking along the right lines.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20)
Objectivity and a strong sense of realism needed. Don't look for much cooperation from others and don't count on luck to help you hurdle possible barriers to your goals.

YOU BORN TODAY are extremely versatile and can build a luminous career in any one of many fields; could even make an avocation highly remunerative. Your individualism is outstanding and you have the ability to attract people to you on sight. You love travel for its own sake; could, therefore, succeed in any line which involves both travelling and dealing with great numbers of persons. You are endowed with a remarkably retentive memory and would make a most successful journalist or writer on almost any subject. Other fields in which you could shine: music, the stage (as actor, playwright or director), aviation or any of the communication media. Birthdate of: Brigham Young, leader of the Mormons; John Masefield, Eng. poet laureate, novelist, playwright; Marilyn Monroe, film star; Pat Boone, pop singer.

FOR MONDAY, JUNE 2, 1975

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20)
Your planets now stimulate initiative, creativity; also help you to handle tedious tasks with a brighter spirit. Use your talents astutely.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 to May 21)
Try to have a talk with individuals important to your interests. A bit of diplomatic maneuvering could have fine results. But avoid intrigue.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21)
Mercury beneficent. Under such fine influences, you should be alert, eager and enthusiastic. Especially favored: writings and all forms of communication.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23)
You may be concerned about certain angles of a situation. Insight is available, but you'll need the help and knowledge of an expert to attain it.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23)
A hunch could pay off now — especially in career matters. But be sure you are seeing persons and situations in a realistic light.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23)
An old acquaintance will do you a very good turn — quite unexpectedly. In fact, your relationships with others, generally, should be unusually congenial now.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23)
Personal relationships under something of a cloud. Be especially careful in family discussions lest emotional tensions build up.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 23)
A good day for business enterprises. You may get some information you have been seeking for some time. Don't make decisions hastily, however.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 to Dec. 21)
One of your top days for attainment, but strengthen present status before tackling new ventures. Use that extraordinary good judgment of yours.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)
Curb a present tendency to "borrow" trouble. Tact and a firm handling of your program can control situations and bring you the dividends due.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)
A mixed day. Job associates are in tune with your efforts right now, but you can expect some ups and downs in a romantic situation.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20)
A deal made with important persons should up your status, bringing gains. Just be sure you are aware of every angle.

Kentucky Federation Of Republican Women To Meet Cumberland Falls

The Kentucky Federation of Republican Women will hold their 1975 state convention at Cumberland Falls State Park, Corbin, June 12 and 13. Mrs. Robert E. Gillis, KFRW president, 2413 Silverbrook Ave., Louisville, will open the convention at 12:00 noon, June 12 at the Governors' luncheon. At 6:30 p.m. a reception honoring Mrs. Connie Armitage, president N.F.R.W., and Mrs. Mary Brooks, Director of the United States Mint, will be held; followed by a banquet at 7:30 p.m. at which Mrs. Brooks will be the guest speaker.

First District PTA Plans Meet

The First District Congress of Parents and Teachers will have its Spring Conference on Monday, June 2, at seven p.m. at Ken Bar Inn, Marshall Co. Registration will be from 6:30-7:00 in the Barkley Room.

Mrs. Melvin Earles, president, will preside over the meeting. The devotion will be given by Mrs. Henry Anderson, spiritual life chairman. Board members will be introduced and PTA presidents will give a report of their activities for the year.

Awards will be presented and a Life Membership will be given. Officers for the 1975-76 school year will be elected and installed. All schools are urged to send representatives to this very important meeting, Mrs. Earles said.

Miss Wilson Is Honored

A miscellaneous bridal shower honoring Miss Rita Wilson, June 21st bride-elect of Randy Elkins, was held Tuesday, May 20, at seven p.m. in the Community Room of the Murray Federal Savings and Loan Building.

The hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Guy Henton and Mrs. Anna Bennett. Miss Ginger Bennett registered the guests. The gifts were placed on a table overlaid with a white cloth decorated with pink ribbon with pink streamers hanging overhead.

After the honoree opened her gifts, refreshments of homemade cakes and punch were served from the table decorated in the color scheme of white and pink. Approximately thirty persons were present or sent gifts.

To Be Wed

Miss Norma Kaye Wells and Vernon C. Mitchell

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wells of Murray announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their only daughter, Norma Kaye, to Vernon C. Mitchell, son of Rev. and Mrs. John Mitchell, Sr., of St. Louis, Mo.

A graduate of Murray State University, Miss Wells received her B. S. in nursing this spring, and was a member of the Kentucky Association of Nursing Students. One of 12 semi-finalists in the Miss Murray State University pageant, she attended Murray University School and was awarded a scholarship from the Zeta Department of the Murray Woman's Club for her first year of college.

Mr. Mitchell, a 1974 graduate of Phillips University in Enid, Okla., is presently employed by the St. Louis County Public School System, and teaches history at the Kinlock Junior High School.

Scheduled for 11 a.m. on Saturday, July 26, the ceremony will take place at the Memorial Baptist Church on Main Street in Murray, and will be performed by the groom-elect's father. Only out-of-town invitations will be sent, and all friends and relatives are invited to attend the marriage, and the reception immediately following in the fellowship hall.

LOGGERS WE ARE NOT

But we do an awful lot of work in trees. Not because we like to or want to, but because we have to in order to protect your electric service. Limbs and trees that could fall and break a power line must be removed.

You can do us both a favor if you'll plant trees well away from electric wires. This way you get the benefit of the tree. We're spared the costly task of cutting on it. And we can leave logging to the loggers.

Letters To The Editor

Thanks From Hazel Club

Dear Editor:

We would again like to thank the many merchants and citizens from the Hazel and Murray area who have helped to make our annual Senior Citizens luncheon such a success.

With their help, we were able once again to say "thank you" to a very special group of citizens in our community. Their gifts and favors were a way of saying they too cared. We will remember them when we shop and do business and we believe they deserve recognition for contributing to better relationships in our community.

Our special thanks go to Perkins Pan-cake House, The Furniture Mart, Kings Den, Wild Raspberry, Jewel Art, Kroger, Cocks Jewelry, TV Service Center, Kent-Wright Glass Co., Buckingham-Ray, Ltd., Chuck's Music Center, Roses, Big B Cleaners, Town and Country, Scotts, The Shoe Tree, The Place.

Old Timers' Baseball

Dear Editor:

In baseball once a year there is an "Old Timers Day" and now there is a possibility of a Murray-Calloway County Senior Citizens Men and Women's Softball team.

I say a possibility because the formation and success of the teams depend upon the interest shown by the Senior Citizens.

I do not want the Senior Citizens to think that this only for the individuals who are physically able. There are many other roles that can be played such as coaches, score keepers, umpires, and even cheerleaders.

This program will be in cooperation with the Murray City Park Recreation Department.

Any interested Senior Citizen may call the office at 753-0929. It can be a lot of fun so let us hear from you. You won't be sorry you did.

BLASINGAME

Posture — the position of the body and limbs — merits our regular attention. Whether sitting or standing, posture often mirrors our physical health and attitude of mind.

Regular use of muscles helps them maintain their strength and tone as they contract to hold the skeleton erect and move us from place to place.

Weight-bearing over a period of years gradually damages the joints, especially in the lower limbs and spine. Damage is usually slower if weight is not excessive and if a normal posture is maintained.

Allowing the spine to slump encourages stress on its ligaments, cartilages, and bones. Sitting and walking erect make for a more even distribution of weight. Good posture assists in maintaining adequate breathing and assuring a better oxygen supply and a disposition of carbon dioxide. Chest expansion and contraction can be impaired by poor posture, and such impairment interferes with the bellows-like action of the chest. Normal chest wall movements in breathing aid the circulation of the blood and enhance appropriate ventilation of the lungs.

I recall visiting West Point Military Academy and watching the cadets as they stood or walked about. They exhibited perfect posture. I noticed that their upper limbs were slightly flexed at elbows, causing the forearms and hands to be carried slightly forward. A moment of reflection led me to realize that flexed elbows resulted from holding their shoulders up and back.

I suggest that you stand before a mirror and study your posture. A side view is often more shocking than a frontal view. Try to copy the West Point cadet and notice the difference in appearance, in breathing and in comfort. Such an experience may encourage you to practice better posture if you have a problem.

Q: Mrs. C. L. wants to know if her husband, who is a cardiac and on a low-sodium diet, can take wine.

A: Wines are low in sodium content, and usually they can be included in the diets of cardiac patients. I suggest that you discuss this matter with your physician. He may have other reasons why your husband should not use wine.

Q: Mrs. E. S. worries because one of her sons, now 10 years old, occasionally wets his bed at night. She desires suggestions regarding a medicine which might help him.

A: Medicines are available, which could be helpful, but it is more important that you have his urine examined and that he see a physician so that he can determine whether your son has some defect in his urinary tract that should be done before trying medicines for relief.

Conference To Discuss Health Insurance Issue

By NIEL HEARD
National Federation Of Independent Business, Inc.

How can national health insurance legislation be implemented under the present situation whereby it appears payroll taxes must be raised to maintain Social Security and at the same time huge increases in malpractice insurance threatens to make medical costs prohibitive?

This will be a major issue of discussion at the conference of small and independent business called by Wilson Johnson, president of the National Federation of Independent Business June 15-18 in the Washington-Hilton, Washington, D. C.

Heading the panel discussion will be Dr. Richard M. Bailey, Associate Professor of Health Economics, of the School of Public Health at the University of California in Berkeley. Dr. Bailey has also been for several years a consultant to Faculty Associates, headed by Joseph Fee which was conducted continuous research into small business problems for the past several years for the NFIB.

Participating with Dr. Bailey will be Representative Al Ullman, of Oregon, Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, Senator William Brock of Tennessee, a member of the Senate Finance and Small Business Committee, and Caspar Weinberger, Secretary of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Dr. Bailey due to his work with the NFIB is one of the nation's foremost economists on small business problems as well as a specialist in the field of medical economics.

After winning a degree as a Doctor of Business Administration at Indiana University, he has specialized in the health field teaching courses both at Indiana and Berkeley on labor economic problems in the health manpower field, analysis of health service processes, and the application of cost-benefit techniques in the allocation of health resources.

He has also served on the staff of the Council of Economic Advisors, as chief economist in the policy planning division of NASA, and is a member of the American Economics Association and the American Public Health Association.

In view of the current situation, this promises to be one of the most interesting sessions of the three day conference that will include as luncheon speakers Mayor Joseph Alioto of San Francisco, famed for his civil prosecution of antitrust violations and who also is current president of the National Mayors' Conference, former California Governor Ronald Reagan, and Alabama Governor George Wallace.

The battle lines on national health insurance have been drawn for quite some time. The two major plans proposed so far at the government level both proposed a one per cent tax on the employer and a three per cent tax on the employer payroll. The biggest difference between the two plans is that the democratic forces are considered behind a move to operate national health insurance under a system similar to Social Security, while the opposite party has long favored handling of such a plan by established private insurance plans.

There is also a third plan that has been proposed by the American Medical Association called "medicredit" which would permit people to deduct health insurance premiums fully from their income tax payments, with the general treasury paying the premiums for those without a taxable income.

Further complicating the issue today is the large number of unemployed whose company medical benefits expired when they were laid off.

Generally, the position of the smaller and independent business operators is that they cannot afford any more payroll taxes. This is perhaps one of the fundamental differences between what is known as big business and small business. While it is assumed big business can pass these added costs along to the ultimate consumer, small business seldom has this recourse.

At the 1974 National Governors' Conference in Seattle, the issue of national health insurance occupied a prominent place on the agenda with the various governors expressing varying viewpoints.

Since that time, however, unemployment, the threatened curtailment of medical facilities due to the high cost of malpractice insurance, as well as the condition of the Social Security fund have all added new elements to the situation.

A survey conducted by the NFIB recently indicated that 53 per cent of the independent business enterprises afford some type of health insurance for employees either paid in full by the employer, or on a shared premium cost basis.

The small business conference will also include on the agenda matters such as tax reform, retirement plans for the self-employed, the energy outlook as well as a panel discussion on the future of the American economy as viewed by today's college students.

Dispose Of Junk Cars

By GILBERT SEARS

In Calloway County, the state of Kentucky and all across the good old USA junk cars have been a part of the scene since Grandpa switched from a hay-burner to a gas-burner. Unfortunately, Grandpa is gone but his Model T lingers on, or his Chevy, or Ford, or Hudson or Packard.

Whatever, it sits out by the smokehouse, or at the edge of the pasture-field, or next to the big ditch, or with its cousin behind the garage. Every year the weeds grow up and only the top is visible, and you wouldn't believe how nice a home this makes for rodents, wasps and snakes.

No one seems to remember the last time anybody wanted a part off the old thing; you'd think something kept around for 20 years would have some value, but in this case it seems to become more of an eyesore and a nuisance. Sure wish there was a cheap way to get it off the place without it being an eyesore and a nuisance to someone else.

For some time, many people in government and local citizens have been concerned about the abundance of junk cars in Calloway County. In seeking solutions to these problems, the expense of sending trucks out to collect the junkers has been higher than the county could feasibly afford.

Lately, however, the state has purchased special equipment for this purpose and is making it available to Calloway County free of charge. Thanks to the Magistrates and County Judge, this needed program is being made available in Calloway County in advance of most other counties. In addition, these county officials have designated the County 4-H Council as the local sponsoring organization, which means that 4-H Club members and their adult leaders are responsible for contacting junk car owners and getting release forms signed.

Any junk car owner can get his car hauled off without it costing him anything. He must, however, sign a release form, which can be obtained from 4-H members and leaders and the County Extension Office or use the form printed in the paper. In any case, forms should be returned to the County Extension Office as soon as possible.

Do yourself a favor, help the 4-H Club, help save our natural resources, and add to the scenic beauty of Calloway County by subtracting your junk car from the landscape.

There doesn't have to be a junk car problem in Calloway County! But how strange it is that we buried Grandpa when his life ended and we leave his old car sitting there just rusting away. Let's change all this and honor Grandpa and his respect for the land and after giving the junkers a proper send-off.

We can all go around singing "Wonder where the cars went when Calloway County cleaned up its environment?"

Outdoor Lore
Butch Greer Outdoor Editor

OUTDOOR LORE is a weekly column dedicated to the hunters, fishermen and others who enjoy the rewards of the out of doors.

CATHY WILSON OF HAZEL holds the spoonbill catfish, weighing thirty pounds, that she caught while fishing at Cypress Point on Kentucky Lake. She caught the large fish on rod and reel with fifteen pound test line. Cathy used worms for bait and was fishing from a boat.

Begin The Boating Season With A Thorough Safety Check-Out

Sparkling freshwater lakes are a big attraction to Kentucky's 88,479 motorboat owners, but before they take to the water in search of adventure and relaxation, a thorough safety check-out is in order.

Just getting the boat to the water involves risk, reminds the Insurance Information Institute, so first make sure your trailer brake lights are in working order, even if it's only "a short trip." It's not worth ruining your boating season with a rear-end collision before it gets underway.

Coast Guard boating accident statistics provide an unfortunate reminder of what can go wrong once you're out on the water: fires, explosions and collisions can cause capsizings and drownings. Lives and property are lost and summers are ruined.

In 1974, Coast Guard statistics show, there were 5,104 boating accidents involving 1,446 lives lost, 993 injuries and property damage of over $9 million in the U. S.

Kentucky, with 1.3 per cent of all U. S. registered boats, reported 59 accidents, 27 deaths and 11 serious injuries, plus property damage of $56,800.

Three critical systems—fuel, electrical and steering—should be checked and maintained in better than working order, the I. I. I. urges.

—Check exhaust and intake pipes for blockages and clean them thoroughly.

—Examine all fuel and electrical connections to see that they're tight.

—Check lines and steering cables for wear and fraying.

—Clean and lubricate all working parts, and check their housings and supports.

The hull itself should be inspected for cracks indicating strain or structural weakness. All checks, blocks and fittings must be soundly anchored and in good order. The lives of your family and guests may depend on the strength of just one of these fittings.

An expert eye can be helpful. The Coast Guard Auxiliary, as part of its Courtesy Motorboat Examination, upon request, will provide a thorough safety check of your boat's general condition and equipment, covering both federal and state law and additional criteria that have been adopted by the Auxiliary.

Boats meeting this criteria are awarded a decal or "Seal of Safety." Coast Guard boarding teams and many state officials normally will not routinely board a boat displaying a current decal. If the boat does not pass the examination, the owner is told of the deficiencies and no report is made to authorities.

No matter how well built and maintained, a safe boat can be made unsafe by poor judgement. Over 50 per cent of all 1974 boating deaths and injuries were the fault of the operator. Another 18 per cent, according to Coast Guard statistics, were caused by hazardous waters and the wakes of other boats. The moral, of course is that it pays to exercise caution, especially in unfamiliar waters and around other—unpredictable—boats.

The Coast Guard Auxiliary offers a wide array of boating courses to the public, ranging from single lessons for children, for young people and for motorboat skippers, to a comprehensive course in "Boating Skills and Seamanship."

The Auxiliary also offers a home study program called "The Skipper's Course," available for $1.50 from the Superintendent of Documents, GPO, Washington, D. C. 20402. Ask for catalog No. TD 5.2: Sk 3.

WATER SAFETY CHECKOFF, as conducted by officer Cornelius Freeman, is one means by which the state Division of Water Enforcement seeks to reduce boating accidents during the boating season. The division, a part of the Kentucky Department of Transportation, carries on an extensive water safety educational program in grade schools and high schools in the Commonwealth.

Loss Of Habitat Means Loss Of Wildlife

For the last four or five years I have noticed many local landowners cleaning out fence rows and destroying valuable wildlife habitat. I feel sure many of them do not realize the detrimental affect they have on the wildlife.

To give you an idea how the removal of fence rows affect populations of wildlife I thought I would relate a few mental and written notes I have collected over the last few years.

Pulling out a fence and smoothing out what is left leaves a "clean edge" that is sterile, barren and desolate. The clean edge cannot support wildlife because there is simply no cover for them and without cover there is no enticement. Many forms of wildlife "make their living" in a fence row and without it they must seek cover and habitat elsewhere. This is where man makes his big impact. By man destroying valuable fence row habitat and nature having the ability for limiting or controlling a given amount of wildlife in a given area, something will suffer; most generally it is the wildlife.

The area I have been observing for the last few years is a 1/2 mile stretch of road that I have travelled at least twice each day. At one time most of both sides of this road had either woven wire or barbed wire fences. Trees, small scrub bushes, vines and grasses provided living quarters for many species of song birds, game birds, birds of prey, other animals and reptiles.

One lone and short length of fence remains. I remember seeing my first Loggerhead Shrike land on a barbed wire fence that is now gone. In that same fence row I remember driving by a small tree each morning and looking for a Red-tailed hawk that was usually watching and waiting for breakfast to make a move. I cannot recall the number of bluebirds I have seen along this stretch of road and I cannot recall the exact number of different species of birds I discovered on this route.

Snakes? They fit into the picture along with the other forms of wildlife by being predatory as well as being prey themselves. I used to see them quite often, but not any more.

Numerous rabbits would jump and dart from either side of the road during the night as well as day. On several occasions I made note of stopping to watch quail- once to watch 14 of them make their individual and decisive dash across the road.

Another form of wildlife I really didn't enjoy but was aware existed was the insects. At night the bugs would literally fog the air above the road and stick to the car when I drove through them. The fog of bugs and insects no longer exist in the summer months like it used to when the fence rows were there. The bugs no doubt served as food for birds and other animals and used the fence cover for their daylight protection.

The habitat has been taken away from the wildlife that once lived on this stretch of road and in return the wildlife either moved on and pressured other habitat or perished because of the destruction of its home.

In much the same way the fence row is the way of living for some species of wildlife so is the farmland a way of living for a lot of landowners. Comparatively, if someone were to come along and pour a 4 inch slab of concrete over 300 acres of prime bottom land, someone would have a hard time planting beans or corn.

I think that possibly whatever reason used in clearing out a fence row or similar area of habitat can be over-ridden by the esthetic and beneficial values of having wildlife on our lands. If we don't make conscientious efforts in preserving and improving wildlife habitat we will continue to lose the animals we enjoy so much.

SPORTSMEN'S JOURNAL
Children's Memorial Tournament Held

The Murray Bass Club recently held the first annual Steve Underwood Memorial Fishing Tournament. The club sponsors an annual children's day event for the club member's children. The children's fishing tournament was formed when the Murray Bass Club was first organized and has just recently been named in memory of Steve Underwood, the late son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Underwood.

Twenty seven children participated in this year's event and collectively caught 61 pounds of bluegill, crappie, stripes, bass and other fish.

Clayton McCuiston's first place stringer of six crappie and one bass weighed in at 8 lbs. 3 oz.

Rickie Herndon took second place with a heavy 7 lb. 14 oz. stringer of bluegill.

Third place went to Robbie Marquardt for his 5 lb. 14 oz. stringer of stripes.

Terry Mullins only caught one fish but it was a respectable 4 lb. 5 oz. bass that won 4th place for him.

Fifth place went to Chris Jenkins for his fine 4 lb. 3 oz. stringer of crappie.

The success of any children's activity is measured by the fun they have and this one would have to be considered a very successful event. "The kids really enjoyed themselves," said Jerry McConnell, president of the Murray Bass Club. To add to the success of the day a wiener roast followed the fishing tourney.

Fishing Report

A tourist stopped in at Murray Bait this week to buy a few minnows. He had caught 21 nice crappies out of Lynnhurst Resort before running out of bait. He was fishing early morning.

Mason Thomas has been doing his thing this week and has reported catching "... quite a few crappie" out of Kentucky Lake.

Larry Seward said Mike Well's stringer of bass was the nicest he had seen so far this year. (See Picture)

Land Between The Lakes Short Shots

Day Camping Program Begins June 2

The Land Between The Lakes Day Camping program will begin June 2 and run through August 31. Day camps will be held at Brandon Spring Group Camp, Camp Energy, Piney Campground, and Center Station, Monday, Tuesday, and Friday, 9 a.m.-5 p.m. There is no charge for these services. Groups must furnish their own sack lunches and cook-out foods. Any group is eligible to participate in the day camps; some groups may wish to have special planned programs. Program activities include hiking, swimming (beach or pool), wading, softball, volleyball, campfires, horseshoes, arts and crafts, archery, canoeing, badminton, story telling, and singing. Program demonstrations available to the groups include firecraft, toolcraft, map and compass, nature and conservation, and first aid. Registration is required and can be made through the Recreation Services Section, TVA, Land Between The Lakes, Golden Pond, Kentucky 42231, telephone 502-924-5602.

and highly usable sites are of all different shapes, designs, and sizes, and provide for a wide range of camping equipment including tents, trailers, buses, and recreational vehicles. Camping is $2.00 per night or $2.25 if electricity is used. Rushing Creek offers an organized summer recreational program including campfires, slide presentations, and an arts and crafts workshop.

Frogging Season Open at Land Between The Lakes

Frog season opened in TVA's Land Between The Lakes Thursday, May 15. There were several reports of limit numbers taken from the numerous farm ponds in the 170,000-acre public outdoor recreation area. The season will continue through May 31. Frogs may be taken by gig only from the lakes and farm ponds of Land Between The Lakes. Hematite and other areas as posted will be closed to frogging. Frogs may not be taken by firearms of any type. The daily bag limit is 15 in Kentucky. Either a hunting or fishing license is valid. Only 10 frogs may be taken per day in Tennessee and a hunting license is required. Frogging hours are 6 p.m. to midnight in the Tennessee sector.

Thirteen Turkeys Taken During Hunts

Thirteen wild turkeys were taken during the nine days at TVA's Land Between The Lakes. The largest turkey tipped the scales at 23 1/2 pounds and was taken by Robert Butler of Murray, Kentucky. This was Butler's fourth turkey in as many years. The average weight of the birds taken during the season was 15.82 pounds, the average beard length was 9.29 inches. Spur length on the birds ranged from 3/8 inch to one and three-sixteenths inches. Hunters reported taking more birds in the wooded ridge areas than any other type of terrain; also, more birds were taken from the Curry Hollow area of Land Between The Lakes than any other area hunted. Successful hunters included - Seldon Calhoun, Cadiz; Kenneth Kennedy, Cadiz; Fay Smith; Carol Ramsey, Paducah; Adrian Owen, Kuttawa; James O. Goodaker, Calvert City; Robert Butler, Murray; Jack Hayes, Hopkinsville; Jerry Turner, Cadiz; Ricky Lowe, Murray; Harold Knight, Cadiz; David Hale, Cadiz; and Mike Kalil, Fort Campbell.

Carporee Nets Over Ton of Carp

The Kentucky Bowhunters Association-Land Between The Lakes Carpooree held recently at Camp Energy in TVA's Land Between The Lakes netted more than 1 1/2 tons of rough fish, according to Marvin Almon, Executive Secretary, KBA. Over 200 participants went to the shallows in search of carp and gar during the tournament. Open Division winners were: 1st Gar, Bob Templeton; 2nd Gar, (tie) Bill Greenwell and Tim Aldridge; 1st Carp, J. L. Hendricks; 2nd Carp, Stan Crump. KBA winners were: 1st Gar, Don High; 2nd Gar, Henry Renfrow; 1st Carp, Mike Marshall; 2nd Carp, Rudy Hayden. Mike Marshall was also the winner of the KBA's "Longest Rough Fish Taken" by a member during the two-day tournament. KBA also endorsed a resolution supporting the present management of Land Between The Lakes by the Tennessee Valley Authority.

$50,000 Bass Tournament A "Tremendous Success"

By Roscoe Dunkinplunk

The American Bass Fisherman's 1975 Kentucky Open Bass Tournament held on Kentucky and Barkley Lakes was a "tremendous success", said Bernie Keene, ABF tournament director. Approximately 200 of the nation's best bass fishermen paid a $250 fee to enter the tourney for their try at part of the $50,000 cash and prize awards being offered.

The two day tournament was held Thursday and Friday of this week at Al Curtis' Prizer Point Boat Dock, Barkley Lake near Cadiz, Kentucky.

Fishermen came in from 18 different states and as far away as California, Oklahoma and Florida. A few Tennessee fishermen, including Stan Sloan, were present. Several Kentucky fishermen were entered along with others from Missouri, Pennsylvania and North Carolina.

Hugh Massey of Murray, Kentucky was one of the area's favored home state fishermen as was Harold Knight of Cadiz.

Harold Knight's first day catch of 27 pounds 15 ounces of bass earned him the top spot for that day; Hugh Massey placed number 20 for the day with 13 pounds 9 ounces.

Most entrees enjoyed a high catch during the first day of the tournament but all were not so fortunate the second and final day. A storm front had moved through the night before and persistent winds did not offer the best fishing conditions for the day. Hence, considerably fewer fish were caught by the contestants the second day - but this was not true of all.

There is an old saying, "When the going gets tough, the tough get going." And so it was with Murray's Hugh Gray Massey. Hugh, boat manufacturer, part owner of M & M Sporting Goods, winner and place winner of several other bass tournaments, and last year's 12th place winner in the granddaddy of them all the Bass Master's Classic, turned on for the second day. Hugh fished hard, losing one fish that could have really helped him place higher, but never the less, he accomplished something no one else in the top twenty could do. He was the only one to surpass the number of pounds they caught the first day. The 16 pounds 15 ounces he brought in for the second day, coupled with the first day catch of 13 pounds 9 ounces netted him a total of 30 pounds 8 ounces and a gigantic move from 20th place to number 5 overall!

We offer congratulations to Hugh Massey for his tremendous effort and his fifth place in Kentucky's biggest paying bass tournament.

Harold Knight, famous turkey hunter and game call manufacturer, could only muster up 1 pound 15 ounces of bass for the second day and dropped to number 6 on the list. Still Harold's two day catch of 29 pounds 14 ounces was impressive and we offer him congratulations also.

Four western Kentucky men were among the top six winners in the American Bass Fisherman's 1975 Kentucky State Open Bass Fishing Tournament. Their names and number of pounds of bass caught are as follows:

First - 331 lb. 2 oz. Owen Byrum, Madisonville, Kentucky;

Second 321 lb. 4 oz. Bob Bellew, Ft. Campbell, Kentucky;

Third - 311 lb. 11 oz. Shorty Evans, Houston, Missouri;

Fourth - 30 lb. 15 oz. Jerry Rhyne, Gastonia, North Carolina;

Fifth - 30 lb. 8 oz. Hugh Massey, Murray, Kentucky;

Sixth - 29 lb. 15 oz. Harold Knight, Cadiz, Kentucky.

Based on the number of entries the winner received $10,000 cash, a high performance bass boat, 85 HP Evinrude engine & Troll Motor, Garcia Chart Recorder and Depth Finder.

2nd - $5000 & Trophy
 3rd - 3500 & Trophy
 4th - 2000 & Trophy
 5th - 1500 & Trophy
 6th - 1000 & Trophy
 7th - 900 & Trophy
 8th - 800 & Trophy
 9th - 700 & Trophy
 10th - 600 & Trophy
 11th thru 20th $300 & Trophy
 21st thru 40th $250 & Trophy

Many spectators witnessed the official's care with the live fish brought in at the weigh-in station. Fast weighing and transportation to a holding tank accounted for a high percentage of live release. Bernie Keene explained that, "The Cadiz Chamber of Commerce will be filleting the non-surviving fish for charitable uses".

The American Bass Fisherman Association should be praised for their tournament organization and care and handling of the fish to insure live release back in to the lake.

Jerry McConnell, president of the Murray-Bass Club paid a compliment in saying, "It is the most professionally run tournament I've ever seen".

The hot topic of the day is the proposed Four Wheel Drive Pulling contest to be held at the fairgrounds on Saturday night, August 9. The event will be co-sponsored by the Twin Lakes Four Wheelers and the Murray-Calloway County Jaycees. Most of you readers are probably familiar with tractor pulls. Replace the tractor (an invention made absolutely for pulling huge loads and doing lots of work) with a four wheel drive rig (an invention made for an undetermined amount of purposes including driving up and down the street) and get prepared for a lot of action.

There will be four classes determined by weight of the vehicle including driver. Latest word is that the breaking points will be 3250 pounds (feather-foots), 4250 (lardtails, 5250 pounds (dinosaurs), and 6250 pounds (obese locomotives). Translated this may mean (Jeeps and Broncos on weightwatchers program), (Scouts, Toyotas, fat Broncos, Jeeps, Cherokees in skinny condition, Blazers with 500 pound appendectomy, and few runt trucks with high degree of cancer); (most 4x4 trucks of 1/2 ton size, healthy Blazers, Ramchargers, Wagoneers, etc.), (Travelalls, Suburbans, etc.). We'll try to keep you posted on new developments. It should be a real show.

The remainder of our space today is devoted to the first genuine unproduced, 4 x 4 ROAD TEST performed in Calloway County. Our very first victim, pardon me, I should say subject is appropriately the most popular four wheel drive rig at present; the CHEVROLET BLAZER. Our tester will remain unnamed due to several reasons which you will probably discover if you read further. I did check his qualifications very closely. He doesn't like baseball, he hated hot dogs, apple pie made him sick, and he normally drives a Ford. Furthermore he would not accept a bribe to pad the report for less than a dollar from Dwayne Taylor or Har- deman Nix so I ruled him as being very honest.

The following are his recollections. First of all the Blazer is big. Big enough to carry four or five adults, two ice sitting in something that makes you leery of sharing a front yard with a German Shepherd. A touch of the lever and the extremely fine Turbo Hydramatic transmission goes to work. Everything is quiet, firm, smoothness as you head out the highway in search of some adventure. The Blazer drives good, rides firm but well, and handles easily. Noise is slightly less than today's compact cars and not bothersome at all. There is some power to the engine but the smog program has robbed the once great small block eight of its pep. This is the kind of rig that makes men feel like men and women feel like heroes. Gas mileage on this test ranged from three (climbing a tree in four wheel drive) to thirty (coming down the tree after the motor died). Bumps, ditches, ruts, etc. don't seem to bother the Blazer. It just rumbles along with the complacency of a Sherman tank in mint condition. The full time four wheel drive is now standard and works well, although you do have to move the lever to Lo Lock in some of the bad places. Everything works just like it ought to and nothing falls off in the floor when you hit a rough spot. The air conditioning was judged to be adequate even in the rear seat in all but the very hottest weather.

In summary the Blazer is an excellent four wheel drive rig. It is really a compromise vehicle, possessing the sturdiness of its truck heritage, and yet offering all the comforts that most of us have come to want in our automobiles. It has lots of room for most families and should make an ideal weekend adventure machine. The quality is good, real good. The Blazer has to pay a penalty in terms of weight and size for rough off-roading but don't sell it too short. The "great white Blazer" has run many a CJ5 trail with dignity.

Costwise new Blazers run from five to eight grand depending on equipment. They have been on the market for eight years now and used Blazers are seldom found under two grand if they are in good condition. The most frequent gripe among four wheelers who own Blazers is poor gas mileage. The most frequent compliment is the undeniable sturdiness and quality of the Blazer. HAPPY FOUR WHEELING.

DARYL CAIN shows the toughness of his four wheel drive vehicle during last year's four wheel drive pull at the Murray-Calloway County Fairgrounds. Another 4WD pull is being scheduled for Saturday, August 9.

A's Get Little League Win Over Cards, 10-8

The A's moved into sole possession of first place in the Little League Friday night as they came from behind to trim the Cards 10-8 in a battle of undefeated teams.

The win leaves the A's with a 2-0 mark while the Cards fall to 1-1.

In the opening contest, the Yanks and Twins battled to an 8-8 tie and will resume in the top of the eighth at 5 p.m. Today.

Also on tap for this evening are the Pirates and the Reds in a 6 p.m. contest and the Astros will face the Cubs in the nightcap. Those games were to be played Thursday but were washed away.

It looked like the Cards would have an easy win as they jumped on the A's early.

The first inning found the Cards using singles by David Ryan and Mitch Paschall plus a couple of passed balls and by the time the frame was over, the Cards led 2-0. Again, the Cards struck in the second inning as they posted four more runs and moved out to a 6-0 lead.

Randy Hostmeyer and Mitch Paschall each had singles in the uprising while the big blow was a two-run single by Mark Denham.

Trailing 6-0, the A's finally broke the scoring ice in the third inning. Two errors put men on at first and second and then Marty McCuiston ripped a three-run shot. It was the second homer of the season for McCuiston and cut the Cards' lead in half at 6-3.

The A's added a lone tally in the fourth and coming to bat in the last inning, the sixth, they trailed the Cards 6-4. The A's pushed across one run and had the bases loaded with two out when George Bell came to the plate.

Bell, who was the bat boy this year for the Murray State

Thoroughbreds, ripped a pitch up the middle and sent in two runs, giving the A's an 8-7 lead which they never relinquished.

The A's went on to add three more insurance runs in the frame. The other big hit was an RBI single by Kirk Starks, who was the winning pitcher in the contest.

The insurance runs by the A's proved to be big as the Cards came up with two runs in their half of the sixth. Ryan and Denham each had hits in the unsuccessful rally.

For the Cards, Denham paced the attack with three hits while Ryan had two and Paschall and Hostmeyer one apiece.

For the winning Athletics, Keith Rogers, McCuiston and Starks each had a hit. Bell led the offense with a pair of base knocks.

League games for Monday will pit the Astros against the A's in the opener while the Reds will tangle with the Twins.

Ellis Knocks Down Ali In Exhibition Match

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Heavyweight boxing champion Muhammad Ali says he will knock out England's Joe Bugner, do the same to Joe Frazier, and retire George Foreman and then "there won't be nobody left to fight...so I'll retire myself."

Ali and former heavyweight champion Jimmy Ellis were back in their hometown Friday night to dance five exhibition rounds for a crowd of more than 3,000—proceeds to Louisville's Muhammad Ali School of Boxing.

Ali weighed a pudgy 230 pounds, and Ellis appeared even more overweight at close to 220. "You don't have to be in great shape for a five-round exhibition," Ellis said.

Ali said he was pleased with the size of the crowd, and he talked to the group about his plans.

"I want to tell the people in Louisville that I will have three more fights then I'll be looking for ten acres and a big white house so I can move back here where I belong. I want to work with the kids at my boxing school."

Ali next defends his title June 30 against Bugner, England's heavyweight champion. "I predict I will knock him out," he said.

"Joe Frazier could not knock him out and I couldn't knock him out the first time we fought. He's a smart boxer, but I'm going to knock him out."

Costs Too High

ISLAMABAD, Pakistan (AP) — Pakistan announced today that it would be unable to stage the 1978 Asian Games here because of his costs.

Law Minister Meraj Khalid, chairman of Pakistan's Olympic Committee, said the government could not meet the "heavy expenditure" the games would involve. Original estimates for the games were as high as $300 million.

"Then I'm going to retire Joe Frazier by knocking him out in five rounds—and after I retire Joe I'm going to retire George Foreman. "There won't be nobody left to fight after that, so I'll retire myself."

Ali and Ellis, both born and raised in Louisville, have met only once since both turned professional in the early 1960s. Ali scored a 12th round technical knockout over Ellis in July 1971 in Houston.

With the exception of a ring and a few other incidentals, the exhibition Friday night bore little resemblance to a professional boxing match.

Ali only once tried the "rope-a-dope" strategy he used in defeating George Foreman for the heavyweight title in October 1974 and in two successful title defenses since, against Chuck Wepner and Ron Lyle.

Ali went to the ropes early in the first round, but Ellis refused to follow. The crowd booed, and Ali came away from the ropes, dancing.

He glided smoothly around the ring for the remainder of the fight, peppering Ellis with light jabs and feathery combinations.

"The people wanted to see me move, so I gave it to them," Ali said. "I don't want to use the ropes for my hometown fans."

The only real action took place in the fifth and last round, when Ellis caught Ali with a solid left hook.

Ali wobbled—winked at Ellis—and pretended to collapse. He was "knocked down" three more times before the bell, bringing cheers and laughter from the crowd.

"You think I'm joking," but he knocked me down for real the first time," Ali said. "I have to admit those other times I was faking it—just to make you think the first one was faked."

Still, few believed that Ali was knocked down by an Ellis punch. Not even Ellis. "Ali always does those things. He wants everyone to have fun. So I go along with him," Ellis said.

McCovey's Shot Gives Padres Win Over Mets

By BRUCE LOWITT
AP Sports Writer

Young Bob Apodaca was facing old Willie McCovey for the first time. Veteran catcher Jerry Grote suggested a breaking pitch. Apodaca opted for a fastball.

"I wanted to get it down and away," he explained.

CRASH!
"Obviously it wasn't down and away enough," he explained further.

McCovey's grand-slam home run off Apodaca—the 16th of his career to tie Hank Aaron's National League record—capped San Diego's six-run outburst in the eighth inning that carried the Padres to their 6-2 victory over the New York Mets.

In Friday's other NL results, Pittsburgh edged Atlanta 2-1, Houston blanked Philadelphia 5-0 and St. Louis nipped Cincinnati 5-4. Los Angeles was leading Chicago 3-1 when play was halted by darkness in the eighth inning—to be resumed before today's regularly scheduled game. San Francisco at Montreal was rained out.

"I was looking for an off-speed pitch, not a fastball," McCovey admitted after he parked his fifth homer of the year far beyond the right field wall. "He shook off Grote and that got me confused."

Loser Jerry Koosman had a five-hit shutout going before John Grubb, Enzo Hernandez and Bobby Tolan singled for one run and Dave Winfield doubled to tie it in the eighth. Mike Ivie was intentionally walked to load the bases, Apodaca took over and McCovey, hitting for

Sign Three

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Wind of the World Football League Friday signed six players, including three who played with the WFL's defunct Chicago Fire.

Picked up from the Fire, which folded before the 1974 season ended, were center Guy Murdoch, defensive end Mick Heinrich and tight end Don Burchfield. Signed as free agents were quarterbacks Roy Nystrom of Plattsville, Wis., State and Pete Beatrice of Brown, and safety Richard Marx of Northern Illinois.

The Wind now has 47 players under contract.

New Coach

PARK CITY, Utah (AP) — The United States Ski Team has named Tom Upham of Wilton, Maine, as coach of the women's cross-country team.

Upham was on the U.S. Ski Team from 1964 to 1968, participating in the 1968 Olympics at Grenoble, France. He retired after an injury and became ski coach at the University of New Hampshire, a post he held until 1972. He currently runs a sporting goods store.

TRACK AND FIELD

EUGENE, Ore. — Steve Prefontaine, one of America's best distance runners and one of this country's most vocal amateur athletes, was killed in a one-car accident here only hours after running the second fastest 5,000 meters in American history. He was 24.

VILLANOVA, Pa. — School-boy world record holder Houston McTear darted to a quick three-step lead and won the 100-yard dash in 9.4, beating Steve Riddick and fellow world-record holder Ivory Crockett, in the Wildcat Meet of Champions.

Kathy Whitworth Moves To Lead In Ladies Play

BALTIMORE (AP) — Kathy Whitworth has her golf game—including her mental approach to it—almost under control again. But she no longer wants to engage in a battle for the top spot on the pro tour.

"I've been that route and I don't want to do it again," Miss Whitworth said after a second straight three-under-par 70 Friday gave her a four-stroke lead in the $55,000 Ladies Professional Golf Association Championship.

Going into today's third round of the 72-hole tournament, Debbie Austin, Donna Caponi Young and defending champion Sandra Haynie were in a three-way tie for second place at 144.

Sandra Palmer, the leading money winner on the 1975 tour, was tied at 145 with Pam Higgins and Penny Pulz. Four others were at 146, par for the municipally-owned Pine Ridge Course. The cutoff at 152 left 53 of the record field of 96 still competing.

Miss Whitworth, the all-time leading money winner who just

Howell Strikes Blow Against Yankees And Percentage Game

By KEN RAPPOPORT
AP Sports Writer

Roy Howell made a big hit for the Texas Rangers and at the same time struck a blow for unconventional baseball strategy.

Howell knocked in five runs Friday night to lead the Rangers to a 6-5 victory over the New York Yankees—and his last RBI upset the accepted "percentage" rules of the game.

Howell, a left-handed hitter, was allowed to hit against Sparky Lyle, a left-handed pitcher—and came through with the game-winning single in the ninth inning.

That's not done, is it, Billy Martin?

"Roy can hit left-handers," said the Texas Ranger manager, who often forsakes the safety of the book. "He showed me that in spring training."

In other American League games, the Minnesota Twins beat the Boston Red Sox 4-3, the Baltimore Orioles blanked the California Angels 5-0 and the Oakland A's turned back the Cleveland Indians 6-2. Two games were rained out—Chicago at Detroit and Kansas City at Milwaukee.

Jeff Burroughs, who hit a home run in the eighth to tie the game 5-5 before Howell's dramatic hit, backed up Martin's thinking. "Roy was swinging the bat well—and let's face it, Billy plays baseball unconventionally."

Howell had two singles before his ninth-inning hit put an end to a six-game losing streak for the Rangers.

Brown, 3-5, the triumph.

Twins 4, Red Sox 3.

Run-scoring singles by Tony Oliva and Eric Soderholm in the seventh inning boosted Minnesota over Boston. Oliva ripped a 1-2 pitch from Boston reliever Diego Segui down the right field line to score Rod Carew. Soderholm's single scored Sergio Ferrer, who had stolen second base after going in to run for Oliva.

Orioles 5, Angels 0.

Jim Palmer pitched a four-hitter and hurled his fourth shutout of the season, enabling Baltimore to snap a seven-game losing streak with its victory over California.

A's 6, Indians 2.

Right-hander Dick Bosman survived a shaky start and scattered seven hits in eight innings as Oakland defeated Cleveland, his former team. Bosman was traded to the A's less than two weeks ago.

He wanted another shot at the Olympics.

Those close to him thought 1976 would be his year for a gold medal. He was just approaching the age at which distance runners hit their peak.

"He was," one acquaintance said, "too young to die."

Barber Didn't See His Eagle But He Heard It

By ED SHEARER
AP Sports Writer

ATLANTA (AP) — Near-sighted Miller Barber didn't have to see it. He knew he had an eagle from the crowd reaction.

"You know," said Barber, "there's a par clap, there's a birdie clap and there's an eagle clap. I knew that was an eagle clap."

Barber's eagle on the 358-yard, par-four 14th started a late surge Friday that saw the man called "Mr. X" move into a share of the Atlanta Golf Classic lead with U.S. Open champion Hale Irwin at nine-under-par 135 for 36 holes.

"I just don't do that," said the balding 44-year-old veteran who would become golf's ninth million dollar winner with a victory in this $225,000 designated event that makes it mandatory for the top players to participate.

"I don't remember when I last had an eagle," said Barber, who holed a pitching wedge from 115 yards away, then closed with birdies on the final two holes to fashion an eight-under-par 64—tying the course record—on the hilly, 6,883-yard Atlanta Country Club course.

Irwin, lodged in a three-day deadlock after the first round, retained his share of the lead by shooting a 69 Friday despite some difficulty with his driver.

Larry Hinson turned in a 67 in the breezy, humid conditions to trail the leaders by two shots at 137. Then came Jim Dent alone in fourth place at 138 after firing a 68.

Four were grouped at 139, including Johnny Miller, winner of three events in the West earlier this year. Miller eagled the par-five finishing hole for a 71.

Others at 139 were Billy Casper, who shared the opening day lead, Jerry Heard and Charles Coody. Heard and Coody had 68s and Casper a 73.

Jack Nicklaus, who won the last two events on this course, soared to a 73 and was among a group at 141 that also included Tom Weiskopf, 67, and England's Peter Oosterhuis, who also matched the course record of 64.

Among those failing to survive the halfway cut of 145 was Arnold Palmer, who had a 75 for a 154 total.

Purcell, Outland And Austins Advance In Region Tennis Play

Two upsets of major proportion highlighted the opening day of the Regional Tennis Tournament being held at the Murray State Tennis Complex.

As expected, Murray High sophomore Mel Purcell easily won his opening matches and is considered as a shoe-in to advance to the State Tournament which will be held next week in Louisville.

The upsets came in the boy's singles and the girl's doubles.

In the singles, second-seeded Billy Weiner of Henderson City will not get a chance to play the top-seeded Purcell. Weiner was a first round casualty to Elder of Fort Campbell, losing in straight sets.

The other upset came in the girl's doubles where the top-seeded duo of Barbara Pryor and Cheryl Lancaster of Mayfield were stunned by Rorie and Shepard of Christian County, 7-6 and 7-5.

Rorie-Shepard will play in the finals today against the Murray duo of Jill Austin and Kathy Outland, the second-seeded team in the tourney.

Austin-Outland won their first round match, easily defeating Urbanek and Cavanaugh of Henderson County in shutout sets. In the semifinals, Austin and Outland won another shutout match, this time defeating Bruce and Kissner of Hopkinsville.

In the girl's singles, top-seeded Mendy Jackson of Henderson City romped through two first round matches and will be in the semifinals today.

One of her victims was Robyn Burke of Murray. Jackson won 6-0 and 6-1 over Burke, who is just a seventh grader.

The other entrant in the girl's singles for Murray was Candy Jackson, a sixth grader. Jackson fell 6-2 and 6-1 to J. Rorie of Christian County.

In the boy's singles, Purcell never even worked up a sweat in either of his matches, racking up four consecutive shutouts.

In the first round, Purcell shutout Scott of Henderson City and in the quarterfinals, blanked McClure of Henderson County.

Also in the singles for Murray High is Brent Austin, who had to survive a rugged first round match with Mark Rudd of Paducah Tilghman. Austin lost the first set 6-4 but bounced back to win the next two sets and the match, 6-4 and 6-0.

The going was much easier in the quarterfinals as Austin ripped Tinsley of Christian County 6-0 and 6-0.

Purcell and Austin could meet in the finals as they are in opposite brackets in the semifinals. Purcell will face Headrick of St. Mary while Austin will face upset specialist Elder of Fort Campbell.

In the boy's doubles, the top-seeded duo of Mark Taylor and John Dallam of Paducah Tilghman had little trouble in advancing to the finals.

The quarter final match found Dallam-Taylor winning 7-6 and 6-2 over Loftus and Anderson of Hopkinsville. In their next match, they defeated Cook and Barlow of Mayfield 6-3 and 6-1 to advance into the finals.

Mark Homra and Kim Trevathan of Murray, the fourth-seeded duo in the boy's doubles, won their first round match over Dome and Free of McLean County, 6-0 and 6-0.

But in the quarterfinals, they were upset 6-3 and 6-4 by Hayes and Dollar of Fort Campbell.

A WANT AD DOES IT BEST

NANCY

SCHOOL WILL BE OVER NEXT WEEK. I'LL BE GLAD TO GET BACK TO MY PLASTER CRACK!

I'M NOT SO SURE.

I GET KIND OF BORED.

I JUST STAND HERE EVERY DAY LISTENING TO MY PLASTER CRACK!

BLONDIE

I CAN'T CUT YOUR LAWN... THE MOWER BLADES ARE SET TOO HIGH FOR THE GRASS.

JUST LOWER THE BLADES.

NO, IT'S EASIER TO WAIT UNTIL THE GRASS GROWS A LITTLE TALLER.

BETTY BAILEY

GUESS WHAT, DAGWOOD! THE DITWILLS HAVE A NEW DOG!

WHY WOULD YOU CALL ME AT WORK TO TELL ME THAT?

I THOUGHT YOU'D LIKE TO KNOW BECAUSE THEY NAMED HIM AFTER YOU.

JUST HOPE IT WASN'T BECAUSE OF ANY RESEMBLANCE.

THE PHANTOM

THAT GUY'S STILL COMIN'!

WHO CARES? WE'RE GOIN'!

DEVIL... JUMP!

ANOTHER TOAST TO ANOTHER GREAT SEASON!

GOLLY, HOW MANY CAN HE THINK OF?

WHICH ONE IS HE ON NOW?

LIL ABNER

WILL YOU PLAY "BLIND MAN'S BUFF" DADDY?

CHUCKLE!! I'VE BOUGHT HIM EVERYTHING IN THE WORLD!

—YET THIS HARMLESS LIL' GAME AMUSES HIM!—

YOU'RE GETTING WARMER, DADDY!!

MSU Alumni Charter Cruise Scheduled June 8

The second annual charter cruise for Murray State University alumni aboard the Belle of Louisville, the last remaining authentic Mississippi River-style stern-wheeled steamer, will be held Sunday, June 8.

Mancil J. Vinson, director of alumni affairs at Murray State, said the 7 to 11 p. m. moonlight cruise will originate at River Front Plaza, Fourth and River Road, in Louisville. The 61-year-old steamer will cruise up the Ohio River to Twelve-Mile Island and return.

Reservations are being accepted for the cruise, which will include a catered dinner of old-fashioned barbecue and entertainment, according to Vinson. He said the entire package costs $7.50 per person. President and Mrs. Constantine W. Curris will be on board to greet guests on the cruise.

Owned and operated by the City of Louisville and Jefferson County, the Belle has become widely known as a result of the Annual Great Steamboat Race with her arch-rival, the Delta.

Sermon Subjects By Bro. Dale Are Listed For Sunday

Bro. John Dale, minister of the Seventh and Poplar Church of Christ, will be the speaker at the 10:40 a. m. and six p. m. services on Sunday, June 1, at the church.

"What Is Your Creed?" will be the morning sermon topic with the scripture from Romans 10:9-10 to be read by Steve Howard. Prayers will be led by Alvin Chapman and Paul Kelly. The evening sermon topic will be "Graduating With The A. U. G. Degree" with Eddie Rogers to read the scripture from II Timothy 2:15. Willie Frances and Aubrey Hatcher will lead in prayers.

Jerry Bolls will direct the song service and Earl Nanny will make the arrangements. Presiding for The Lord's Supper will be Steve Herndon and Alan Jones. Serving the congregation for June will be M. G. Richardson, Richard Duke, Edward P. Thomas, Donnie Winchester, Billy Nix, Jerry Humphreys, Ted Allen Howard, and Mack Harris.

Serving on the Extension Department this week will be James Herndon, Earl Steele, Webb Caldwell, and Roy Harmon.

Nursery assistants for June will be Helen King, Lou McDougal, Ruby Herndon, Barbara Jewell, Joan Humphreys, Peggy Carraway, Sue Adams, Betty Housden, and Robbie LaMastus.

Queen out of Cincinnati. Held the Wednesday evening before the running of the Kentucky Derby in early May, the ace attracts thousands of spectators along the banks of the Ohio.

Built in 1914 in Pittsburgh and commissioned as the Idlewild, the vessel was later renamed the Avalon and finally the Belle of Louisville after it was purchased at public auction by the Jefferson County Fiscal Court in 1962.

Vinson said reservations for the cruise may be made by sending a check to: Belle of Louisville Cruise, Alumni Association Office, Administration Building, Murray State University, Murray, Ky., 42071.

Memorial Church To Hear Pastor Here On Sunday

"If Hell Could Speak" will be the subject of the sermon by Rev. Jerrell White, minister of the Memorial Baptist Church, at the 10:50 a. m. services on Sunday, June 1, at the church. His scripture will be from Luke 16:19-31.

The ordinance of The Lord's Supper will be observed at the morning service.

The Sanctuary Choir, directed by Bro. Ron Hampton, minister of music, will present special music.

At the evening service at 7:30 Rev. White will speak on the subject, "A Biblical Description of the Devil." Special music will be presented.

Church School will be at 9:40 a. m. and Church Training at 6:30 p. m.

High school graduates were recognized in the service on May 25 and were honored with a luncheon at the Pastorium after morning worship. They were Brad Barnett, Vickie Cathey, Mitchell Cunningham, Kathy Halford, Kathy Higginbotham, Janie Lamb, Steve Meadows, Vicki Roberts, Tony Rogers, and Jim Thomason.

Vacation Bible School will be held June 23-27.

SALZBURG FESTIVAL ANNOUNCES PROGRAM

SALZBURG, Austria (AP) — The program of the 1975 Salzburg Festival, July 26 to Aug. 30, will include 17 concerts by the Vienna, Berlin and Israel philharmonic orchestras, the London Symphony and the Austrian Radio Orchestra.

Richard Strauss's "Woman without a Shadow," conducted by Karl Boehm, will open the festival. Also scheduled are Mozart's "Marriage of Figaro" and a new production of Verdi's "Don Carlos."

There will be solo performances by Emil Gilels, Alexis Weissenberg, Maurizio Pollini and Itzhak Perlman.

Architect Gayle McGregor of the Paducah Architectural firm of L. P. S. Associates was recently presented the First Annual Architectural Award of the Southeast Lathing & Plastering Bureau, an eleven state construction industry regional service organization.

McGregor and his firm received this top award in the face of stiff competition throughout the southeastern United States for their work on the design of the new Marshall County Public Library located in Benton.

Architect McGregor was honored for his imaginative and innovative use of age old materials in a modern new concept that provided the residents of Marshall County with a beautiful, safe, permanent structure at modest cost.

Making the award to McGregor were Lynn Lassiter, the Murray, Kentucky lathing and plastering subcontractor involved in the construction of the Marshall County Library, and Gene Erwin, director of the SEB of Atlanta, Georgia.

Air. . . (Continued from Page 1)

But Train said the 1970 Clean Air Act which required the setting of these standards and fixed the mid-1975 deadline has brought about substantial improvements in air quality and paved the way for further progress.

Train has asked Congress to leave the original deadline in place, but to give him greater flexibility in forcing the pace of clean-up efforts.

"The nation has made significant progress in cleaning up the air — there is no doubt about it — but there is still a long way to go," Train told reporters.

For example, Train estimated that emissions of smoke and dust have been reduced by some 79 million tons per year since 1970, with about 13 million tons still to be suppressed.

Out of the target reduction of 25 million tons a year of sulfur oxides, Train said, reductions totaling some 16 million tons have been achieved.

In automobile emissions, he said, the goal was a 65 per cent reduction of hydrocarbons and carbon monoxide in 1972 through 1974 cars, compared to pre-1968 models.

Reductions of 40 per cent were achieved in the 1972 models, 50 per cent in 1973 cars, and 60 per cent in 1974 cars in actual use, Train said.

The goal for 1975 cars has been raised to an 85 per cent reduction.

BUILDING BIGGER AIRPORT

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP) — Kenya will have one of the biggest and most modern airports in Africa when construction of the new facility is completed here at the end of next year.

The new $52-million complex will cater to four million passengers a year. The present airport is currently able to handle 1.25 million passengers a year and is one of the busiest on the continent.

The new airport will have facilities to handle 100,000 tons of goods a year, and will also be able to handle 3,000 passengers an hour.

Country Club Members To Vote On Clubhouse Plans

A general membership addition as originally planned meeting of the Murray Country Club has been called for 7:30 p. m. Monday, June 2, for the purpose of determining guidance for the board of directors in proposed capital outlay improvements in the club's physical facilities.

Last year, the board was authorized by the membership to construct a clubhouse, an addition to the present clubhouse building and to make various other improvements at a cost not to exceed $100,000. The plans presented at that time included a two-story addition to the clubhouse.

The clubhouse has been constructed and is in use, although its final cost exceeded its estimated expenditure. Because of this and increased costs in building materials it has now been determined that the proposed improvements will exceed the original authorized sum.

As an alternative, a single-story addition to the clubhouse is being considered, the cost of which would not exceed the level of the originally authorized expenditure.

According to President Richard Knight, the membership, either by their presence or by proxy vote, will be asked to decide whether to proceed with the two-story

Dr. David C. Roos To Speak Sunday

Dr. David C. Roos, pastor of the First Christian Church, will speak on the subject, "Rejoice, The Lord Is King," at the 10:45 a. m. services on Sunday, June 1, at the church.

The Church Choir, directed by Mrs. William Porter with Gary Galloway as organist, will sing the anthem, "Treasures In Heaven" by Clokey.

Dan McKeel will be worship leader with Bruce Marvin as candle lighter. Greeters will be Mr. and Mrs. Del Fleming, Mrs. Kent Forrester, and Mrs. Robert Hopkins.

Elders serving will be James Rudy Allbritten and Henry Holton. Deacons will be Jim Clouton, Terry Hart, Mike Holton, Fred McCord, Ron Mitchell, and Auburn Wells.

A Great Big Thank You From Dwane Jones

I want to thank each of you for the confidence you placed in me in my race for Circuit Court Clerk. I have personally extended by congratulations to the winner, Mrs. Shea, and again wish her a long and happy tenure in the office.

I would also like to say to each of the other candidates that it was a pleasure to run with each of you, and to congratulate you on the high-level, clean campaign that you ran, all the candidates ran on the basis of serving the public, which is the way a campaign should be run.

I will always remember meeting all the people of Murray and Calloway County during the election. It is something I shall always cherish.
